NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You have been identified by Abrahamsen Gindin, LLC as a potential member of a class.

A Court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer, and you are not being sued.

IF ABRAHAMSEN GINDIN, LLC SENT YOU A DEBT COLLECTION LETTER BETWEEN JUNE 24, 2020 AND NOVEMBER 30, 2021, IN CONNECTION WITH THE COLLECTION OF A CONSUMER DEBT, YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO PAYMENT FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

- A consumer sued Abrahamsen Gindin, LLC (“Defendant”) alleging that Defendant sent debt collection letters to consumers that violated the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“FDCPA”). Defendant expressly denies any liability, or that it violated the FDCPA, but has agreed to a settlement to avoid the expense and uncertainty of continued litigation;
- A settlement will provide $16,900 (the “Settlement Fund”) to fully settle and release claims of a class of persons to whom Defendant mailed a debt collection letter between June 24, 2020 and November 30, 2021, in connection with the collection of a consumer debt.
- The Settlement Fund will be used to pay pro-rata settlement payments to class members who submit a valid and timely claim.
- In addition, Defendant will provide $2,460 (the “Reimbursement Fund”), from which class members who made payments to Defendant will be reimbursed, in full. Class members need not submit a claim form to receive their reimbursement.
- Defendant, subject to the Court’s approval, will separately pay Class Counsel’s reasonable attorneys’ fees, expenses, and costs, the costs of notice and administration of the settlement, and an additional payment to the Class Representative.
- Your legal rights are affected, and you now have a choice to make:

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT:

SUBMIT A CLAIM FORM	If you submit a valid claim form by June 5, 2023, and if the Court approves the settlement, you will receive a pro-rata payment from the Settlement Fund and will give up your right to sue Defendant based on any of the released claims.
DO NOTHING	If you do nothing, you will not receive any monies from the Settlement Fund, but you will receive a reimbursement payment, if you previously made a payment to Defendant. You will also give up your right to file a lawsuit against Defendant over the released claims.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE CASE	This is the only option that allows you to file a lawsuit against Defendant on your own regarding the legal claims in this case, but if you exercise this option, you will not receive a settlement payment. The deadline for excluding yourself is June 5, 2023.
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	Write to the Court about why you do not believe the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The deadline for objecting is June 5, 2023.

- Your rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this notice.
- The Court in charge of this case still must decide whether to approve the settlement. Settlement payments will be made if the Court approves the settlement, and after any appeals are resolved. Please be patient.
- Any questions? Read on.

1. Why should I read this Notice?

If Defendant attempted to collect a consumer debt from you in Florida between June 24, 2020 and November 30, 2021, this settlement may affect you. The lawsuit is known as Deloise Guyton v. Abrahamsen Gindin, LLC, Case No. 2003-CA-001242, and is pending in the Circuit Court of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, in and for Duval County, Florida.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

Ms. Guyton filed this lawsuit against Defendant alleging that Defendant attempted to collect debts from consumers in Florida even though Defendant was not registered as a consumer collection agency with the State of Florida Office of Financial Regulation. Ms. Guyton alleged that Defendant’s conduct violated the FDCPA. Defendant denies the allegations.

3. What is a class action and who is involved?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more people called “Class Representatives” file a lawsuit on behalf of other people who have similar claims. In this case, the Class Representative is Ms. Deloise Guyton. The people together are a “Class” or “Class Members.” The entity that the Class Representative sued—Abrahamsen Gindin, LLC—is called the “Defendant” in this case. The Court accordingly resolves the claims for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the class.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

The Court decided, for settlement purposes, that this lawsuit can be certified as a class action because it meets the requirements of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, which govern class actions in Florida courts. Specifically, the Court found that:

- The Class Members are so numerous and geographically dispersed that joinder of all of them is impracticable;
- There are questions of law and fact common to the Class Members, which predominate over any individual questions;
- Ms. Guyton’s claims are typical of the claims of the Class Members;
- Ms. Guyton and Class Counsel will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all the Class Members; and
- Class treatment of these claims will be efficient and manageable, thereby achieving an appreciable measure of judicial economy, and a class action is superior to other available methods for a fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.

5. Why is there a settlement?

Ms. Guyton and Defendant have agreed to settle the lawsuit to avoid the time, risk, and expense associated with continued litigation. Under the settlement, Participating Class Members will receive compensation to resolve the claims asserted in the lawsuit. Ms. Guyton and her attorneys think the class settlement is in the best interest of all Class Members.

6. How do I know if I am a part of the settlement class?

Defendant’s records indicate that you may be a member of the class. You need to determine whether you are affected by this lawsuit. The class is defined as “All persons (a) with a Florida address, (b) from whom Abrahamsen Gindin, LLC attempted to collect a consumer debt, (c) between June 24, 2020 and November 30, 2021.”

7. Do I have lawyers in this case?

The Court has appointed the law firm of Greenwald Davidson Radbil PLLC in Boca Raton, FL to act as Class Counsel to represent the interests of Class Members. You will not be personally charged by these lawyers. You may retain your own counsel to represent you at your own expense if you would like.

8. How will class counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the payment of their attorneys' fees, litigation costs and expenses up to $55,000 in total. The fees will compensate Class Counsel for investigating the facts, litigating the case, negotiating the settlement, and obtaining approval of the settlement. The Court may award less than the amount sought by Class Counsel. Any attorneys' fees and costs awarded to Class Counsel will be paid separate and apart from the Settlement Fund and thus will not diminish the Settlement Fund or Class Members' payments from the Settlement Fund.

9. What does the settlement provide?

Defendant has agreed to reimburse all monies paid to it by Class Members, in the total amount of $2,460.00. All Class Members who do not exclude themselves from this settlement, and who made a payment to Defendant, will receive a check in the amount they paid. Class Members will not need to submit a claim or take any additional action to receive their reimbursement.

In addition, Defendant will separately pay $16,900 into a fund, which will be divided equally among all Participating Class Members who submit a timely and valid claim and who did not elect to exclude themselves from the Settlement.

Separate from the Settlement Fund and the reimbursement payments, Defendant will pay: (1) the costs and expenses of administrating the class action settlement; (2) $1,000 to the Class Representative; and (3) an award of attorneys' fees, litigation costs and expenses not to exceed $55,000 to Class Counsel, subject to court approval.

10. How much will my payment be?

Class Counsel estimates that your share of the Settlement Fund will be between $50 and $150. Your share of the Settlement Fund ultimately may be more or may be less, depending on how many other people participate in the Settlement Fund by returning valid claims.

11. Does this settlement mean that I do not have to pay the money Defendant is trying to collect from me?

No. This settlement does not impact any debt that Defendant is collecting from you or has attempted to collect from you. In other words, this settlement does not relieve you of any obligation to pay any debt owed, assuming you otherwise owe the debt.

12. What am I giving up to stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will be part of the class, which means you give up your right to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant regarding any of the Released Claims as defined in the Agreement. Giving up your legal claims is called a "release." Unless you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will release Defendant, and each of its past, present, and future directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, partners, principals, clients, insurers, co-insurers, re-insurers, shareholders, attorneys, and any related or affiliated company, including any parent, subsidiary, predecessor, or successor company, from all claims under the FDCPA arising out of the mailing of a written communication sent by Defendant to Class Members between June 24, 2020 and November 30, 2021. For more information on the release, Released Parties, and Released Claims, you may view a copy of the settlement agreement at www.gdrlawfirm.com/Guyton.

13. How can I get a settlement award?

To qualify for a payment, you must mail a claim form, postmarked no later than June 5, 2023, to Guyton v. Abrahamsen Gindin, LLC, c/o Class-Settlement.com, P.O. Box 9009, Hicksville, NY 11802-9009. Read the instructions carefully.

14. How do I get out of the settlement?

If you do not want a payment from this settlement, and you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue Defendant regarding the claims asserted in this lawsuit, then you must take steps to get out of the settlement class. This is called “excluding yourself” from the settlement.

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must send a letter by mail that (a) is signed by you; (b) includes your full name, address and phone number, and email address (if available); and (c) includes the following statement: “I request to be excluded from the settlement in the Guyton action,” or words to that effect. No request for exclusion will be valid unless all of the information described above is included and the request for exclusion is submitted timely.

You must mail your exclusion request postmarked no later than June 5, 2023 to the following address:

Guyton v. Abrahamsen Gindin, LLC
c/o Class-Settlement.com
PO Box 9009
Hicksville, NY 11802-9009

15. How do I tell the Court that I do not agree with the settlement?

If you are a Class Member, you can object to the settlement or any part of the settlement that you do not believe is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

To object, you must file a written objection with the Court and send said written objection via first-class mail to both attorneys listed below, and to the Court, postmarked no later than June 5, 2023. In order for your written objection to be effective, it must: (a) contain a heading which includes the name of the case and case number; (b) include your full name, address, telephone number and email address (if available); (c) state the grounds for objection, as well as identify any documents that you desire the Court to consider, including proof that you are a Class Member and all legal authorities you intend to present at the settlement fairness hearing, and (d) state whether you intend to appear at the final fairness hearing on your own or through counsel.

16. What is the difference between objecting and excluding yourself?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not believe the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. You can object only if you stay in the settlement. Excluding yourself means that you do not want to be part of the settlement. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

17. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing and the Court approves the settlement, you will not receive a payment from the Settlement Fund and you will release any claim you have against Defendant related to the allegations in this case. However, if you paid any money to Defendant, you will be reimbursed even if you do not submit a claim. Unless you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will not be able to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant regarding any of the Released Claims as defined in the Agreement.

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Fairness Hearing at 9:30 a.m. on July 12, 2023, at the Fourth Judicial Circuit Court, Duval County Courthouse, 501 W. Adams Street, Hearing Room 734, Jacksonville, FL 32202. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, hear any objections to the settlement, and consider whether final approval of the settlement should be granted. The Court may also decide how much to award to Class Counsel in attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses.

You do not need to attend the final fairness hearing. Class Counsel will appear on behalf of the Class. But you are welcome to come, or have your own lawyer appear at your own expense.

19. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Fairness Hearing, but only in connection with an objection that you have timely submitted to the Court according to the procedure set forth in Question 15 above. You cannot speak at the hearing if you excluded yourself from the settlement.

20. Is this the entire settlement agreement?

No. This notice is only a summary of the proposed settlement. More details are in the settlement agreement, which is available at www.gdrlawfirm.com/Guyton.

DO NOT CALL OR WRITE TO THE COURT, THE CLERK OF THE COURT, DEFENDANT OR ITS COUNSEL ABOUT THE SETTLEMENT. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, YOU MAY CONTACT CLASS COUNSEL AT THE ADDRESS LISTED ABOVE.
